

Whois_JG Full Bio

Whois_JG is the next topic in the Pacific Northwest Music Scene. He is capturing the audiences with not only his music, but also the way he puts on a show every performance. He can light up a Hip Hop club or a Latin night in your city. With his catchy hooks and melodies, Whois_JG can tell his stories to both English and Spanish speaking audiences. His music consists of R&B, Hip Hop, Rap, Latin, Reggaeton, Spanish Pop, and more. With JG you will get a range of music that goes from lit to motivational to heart break and love. Make sure to catch one of his performances as he often illuminates the stage as he dances solo or with his back up dancers. He has performed in Seattle, Wenatchee, Tri Cities, Spokane, LA, and will be performing for the first time in Houston, TX 2024. You will not be disappointed with Whois_JG, he is a power house in both the English and Latin scene.

Born in Wenatchee, Washington, Whois_JG (JG) is a Chicano meaning that he is of Mexican roots, but was born in the USA. Both of his parents are from Mexico, and taught JG how to read, write, and speak Spanish. JG's interest started at a young age when he saw artist on TV, he knew that is what he wanted to be. Inspired by entertainers like Ricky Martin, Rauw Alejandro, Chris Brown and many others who not only write music, but also dance. JG started singing at the age of 13 years old when he joined Mariachi at his school. He then went on to sing for Mariachi Huenachi, an elite mariachi group in Wenatchee that competes around PNW till the age of 18. JG started college and experimented with his own sounds at the age of 19.

In 2022, JG started taking music with a serious attitude, and dropped his Debut single "Ride with Me" recorded at Humble & Fearless Records, mixed by EMB Flame otherwise known as "The Godfather." JG also started learning to dance and including dancers from Imagery, who have helped his performances light up. In 2022 JG also dropped his first Latin Single "Ella Dice" which launched him into finding his main genre which is Latin Music. Ever since then Whois_JG has been performing all over the PNW and hosting his own shows in his Hometown. Since 2022 he has hosted about 7 shows, and is continuing to build the scene in Wenatchee. He has performed in Yakima, Spokane, Seattle, Bellingham, Wenatchee, Tri Cities, LA, and will be performing for the first time in Houston. He was invited to “ThemDamnMexicans” Culture Fest which holds a show full of Spanish artists. There is no doubt Whois_JG is working hard to get his name out there. He has been making noise in the Latin Community.
